KENOSHA HIGH'S
CIRCUS SPY

IN MEMORIAM

The Circus pauses to honor the memory of two beloved teachers.

Mary D. Bradford, whose name our school is proud to perpetuate, teacher in Kenosha High School from 1884-1894, and superintendent of schools from 1910 to 1921.

Sylvester W. Ward, "Pop" Ward to generations of high school students, assistant principal for thirty-four years from 1907 until his retirement in December, 1941.

Both vigorous personalities, they gave freely of their strength and of their talents for the welfare of the young people of Kenosha. We admired and respected them as educators; we loved them as friends.

Introducing..

THE BARKER AND THE 1943 CIRCUS SPY

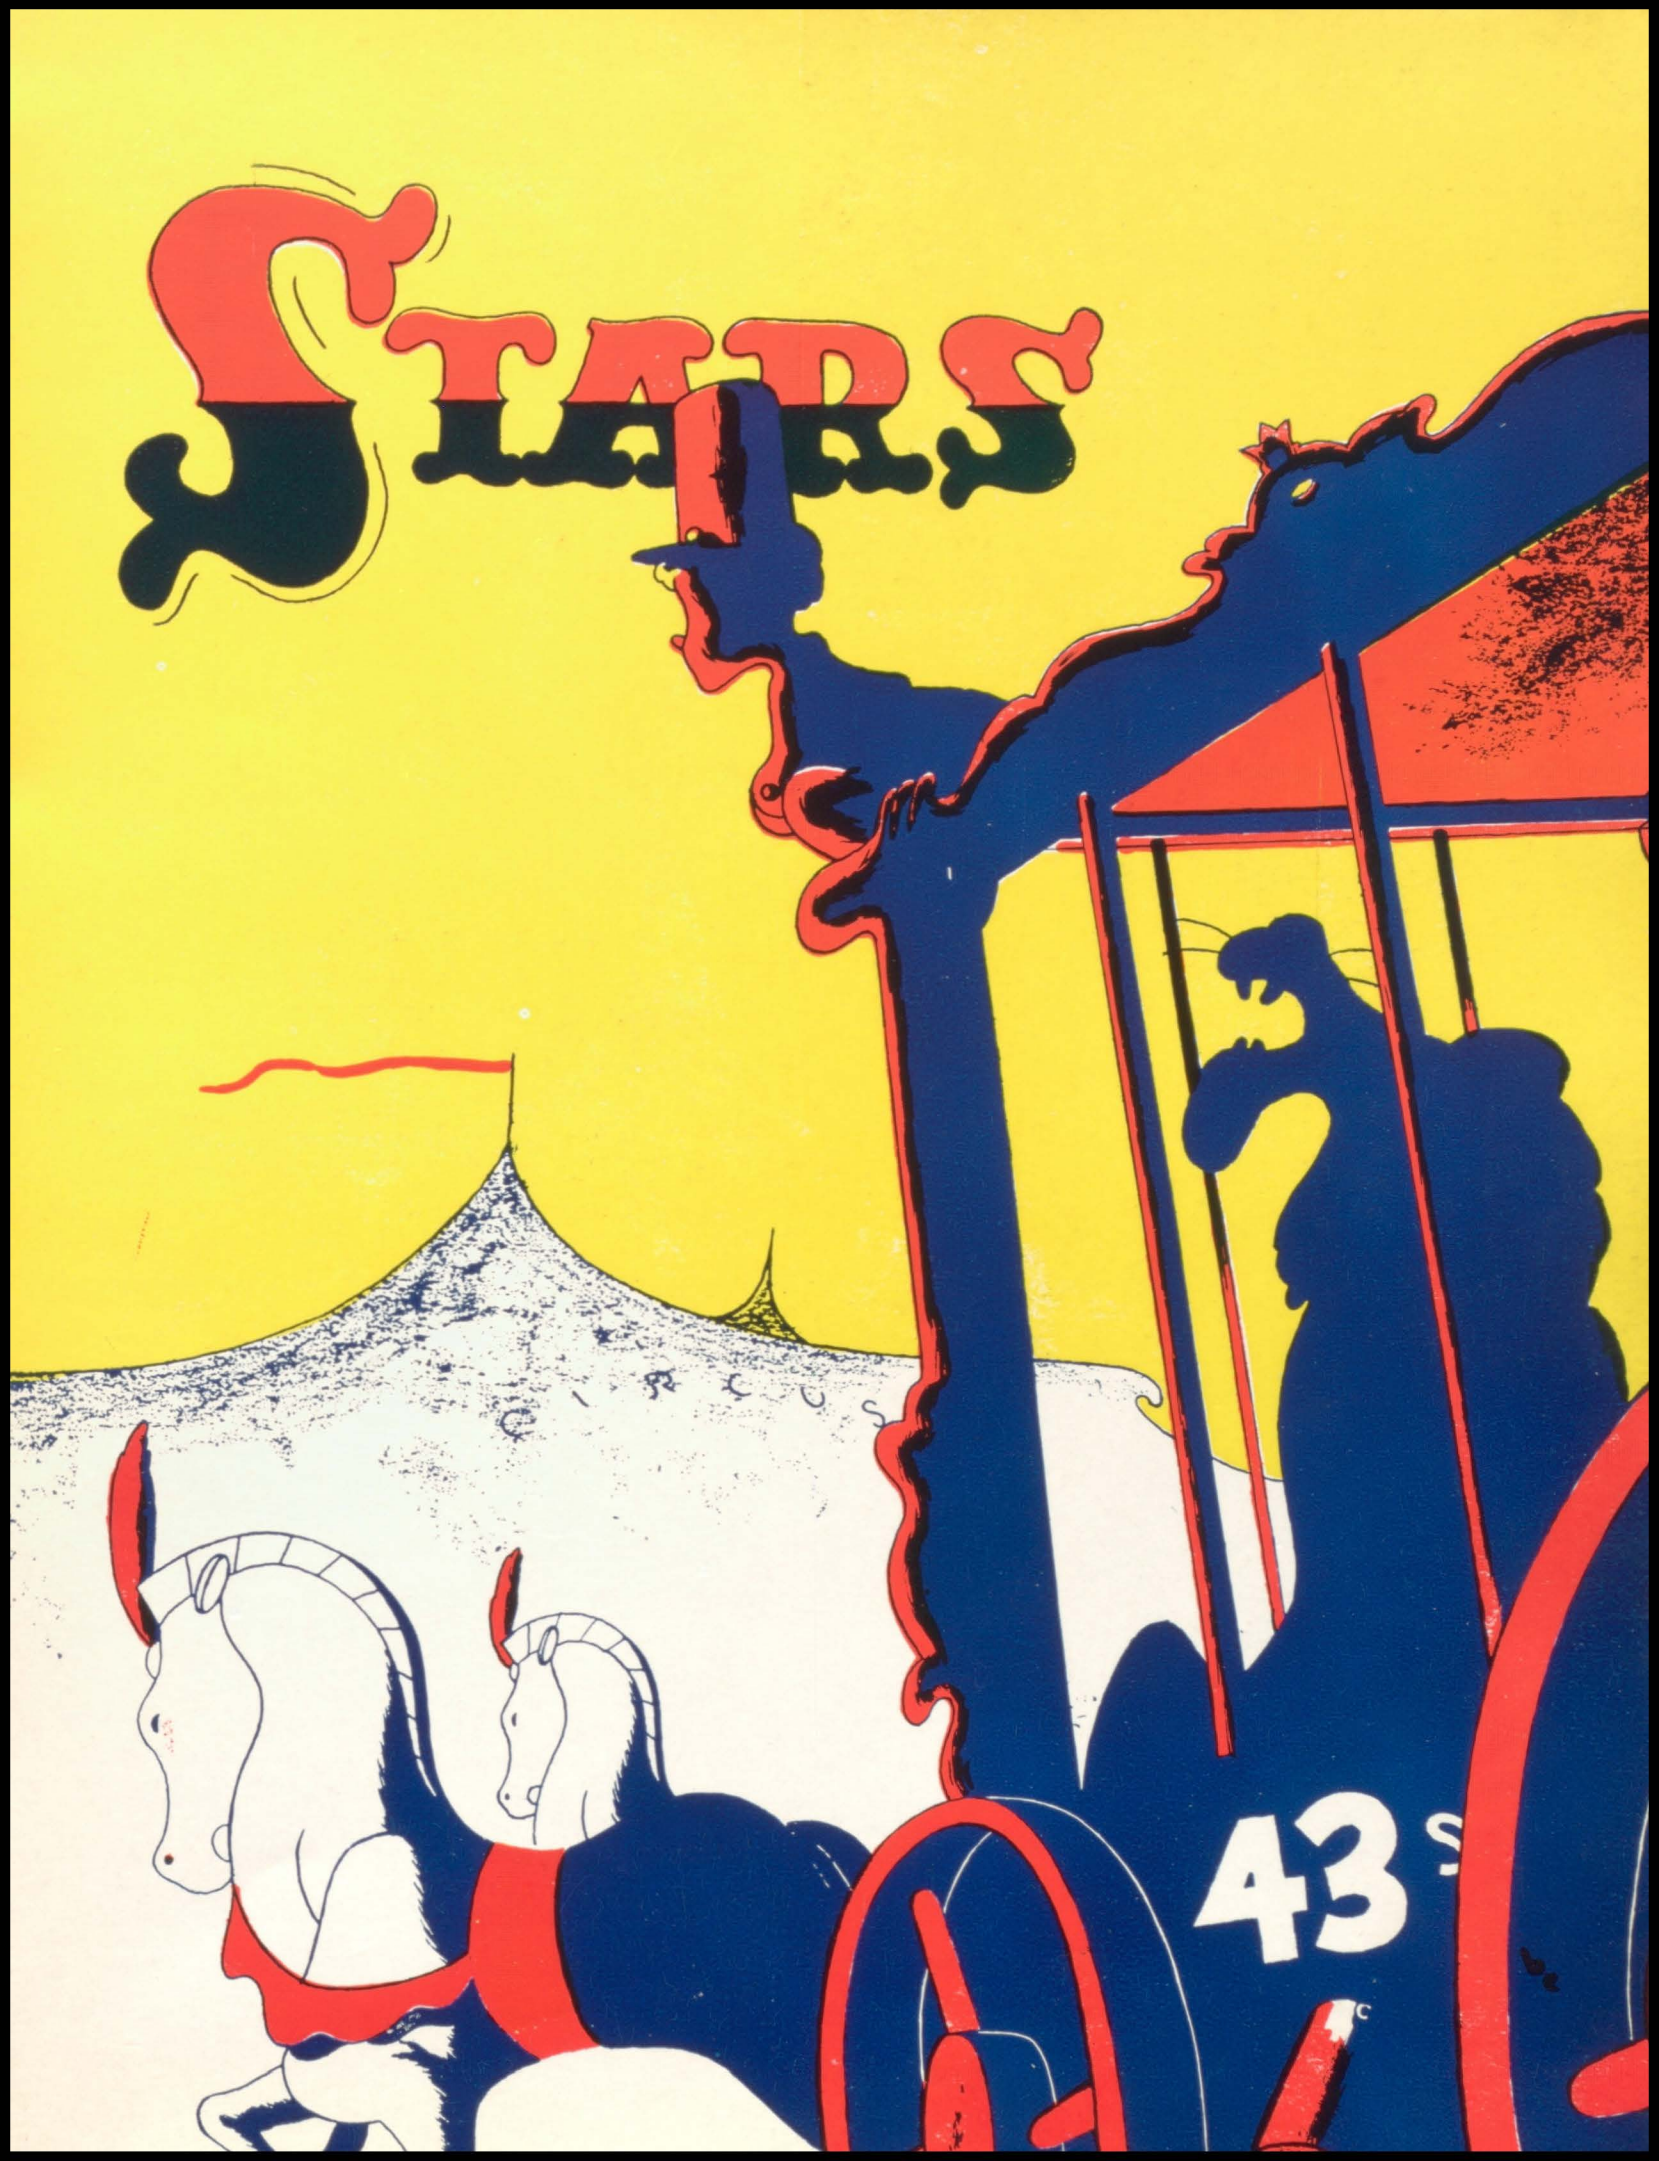

Step right up, ladeez and gentlemun!! You are about to enjoy one of the most magnificent productions in the world. The Spy staff has sketched and painted, written and erased, pondered and planned over the events of the school year of 1942-1943; the result is a priceless remembrance of this period in drawings, photographs, and the written word. You've bought your ticket, and if you are in the proper frame of mind to laugh, to exclaim, and to remember, step forward, folks, to look and to sigh.

THE 1943 CIRCUS SPY

And now, folks, the Big Parade's started, and the circus people are filing into the Big Top. . . See, there's a lion cage just goin' in now, pulled by two white stallions. So if it's real enjoyment and your full money's worth you want, folks, just step right up, turn over the page, and see the Show of the Century—the 1943 Kenosha High Circus Spy!

Riding the rails! Eight pretty Sophomore girls wait patiently for 1:15. Four of them look longingly at the main building, dreaming, no doubt, of good times to come. Maybe they don't know when they are well off. From left to right we see Eleanor Bilger, Agnes Chachula, Lorraine Boreiko, Joyce Zuidweg, Beatrice Schurichow, Myrtle Feich, Lorraine Barks, Barbara Otto.

"Another day gone!" say the Sophs as they leave via the lower north stairs. Ann Fifer, the girl in the foreground, is so happy she is almost dancing towards the door. The others are not quite so joyful. From top down they are Margaret Gelsone, Florence Jormakovicz, Richard Proulx, Joyce Murphy, and Lois Constanti. Lois and Ann Fifer are victims of the craze for white boots.

SOPHS AND JUNIORS

In the star-spangled, dazzling circuses of today, the whole company—stars, understudies, roustabouts, and even waterboys—are all considered integral parts of the show; so it is only fitting that we begin our tour of the Kenosha Big Top with a peek at the Parade of Sophomores and Juniors, who are our understudies, the stars-to-be.

Rita Andrea, prominent beauty, is president of the Junior B's. On her right are Walter Roemer, secretary; Bob Schneider, treasurer; and Jean Shields, vice president.

Step right up, ladies and gentlemen, and watch these sparkling youngsters display their unlimited talents. They entertain you with the skill and poise of seasoned troupers. They hold you spellbound from the beginning to the end. See them dance, hear them sing, see them walk and talk! They thrill you, ladies and gentlemen, they amaze you with their youthful ability. See them now in their supporting roles; they'll be stars in a season or two.

Sophomore girls gather around outside of the annex, waiting for the bell. It has never been figured out why they always wait at the east door, while the boys group around the north door. Could they be bashful, perhaps?

ARE OUR UNDERSTUDIES

This section of our Circus is composed of twelve big half-page pictures of all the Sophomores and Juniors in our Big Top. On these two pages that introduce this section we see the undergraduate class presidents and officers in formal photos of Sops and Juniors at work and in play.

Did you ever wonder who guide the Sophomores through the difficulties of their first year? Here are their officers in one of their few leisure moments: Bob Gurske, president; Jean Molling, secretary; Tana Miller, treasurer; and Malcolm Young, vice-president.

And here are the student leaders who have the responsibility of directing the Sophomores when they are entirely new to high school life: Ken Firchow, vice-president; Shirley Werner, president; and Nancy Dittmann, secretary-treasurer.

Yum—Let's try one: Rationing or not, cooking is still an important subject in the Annex Top. Doris Whitefoot, Janice Rasmussen, Lucille Knapp, and Florine Olson prepare a batch of cookies as a class assignment. The quality of the girls' cookery has increased tremendously since the boys' cooking classes have been giving them competition.

RING MASTERS

Shrewd Showmen, Good Managers, and Leaders

Every circus must have its ringmasters, designers, and producers; and our Big Top is no exception. The three men who run the show are G. F. Loomis, superintendent of schools; G. N. Tremper, principal, and D. T. John, associate principal. . . With the new nation-wide accelerated educational program, these three men carry an added burden of responsibility, for their careful planning and faithful assistance are vital to the war effort.

The Show goes on! In spite of war, our school continues its training of young people in knowledge, in character, and in citizenship. But the students now get more than the usual training, for in response to the Nation's call the following courses have been added to the curriculum: body building classes for boys and girls, home nursing, cooking classes for boys, mathematics refresher course, photography, pre-induction courses in machines, electricity, radio, and airplane engine overhaul, girls' courses in industrial arts and machine drawing, model airplane building for the navy.

On many occasions it has been necessary to ask for student help in extra-curricular war activities. Many students have been active in doing these jobs: home room sales of war stamps and bonds, tin can collection, silk stocking drive, books for armed forces, first aid instruction, making surgical bandages, rationing gasoline, sugar, and food, civilian defense work.

Waiting for their final cue are these graduating seniors. Here they are discussing the past, nervous about the present, and expressing hopes for the future. The graduation exercises were the grand finale of their brief period of stardom.

Valedictorians Joan Kindt and Shirley McPhaul end their careers as co-stars in the graduation ceremonies. Both girls maintained straight A averages, in addition to their many outside activities. We see them looking over their old grade slips.

STARS

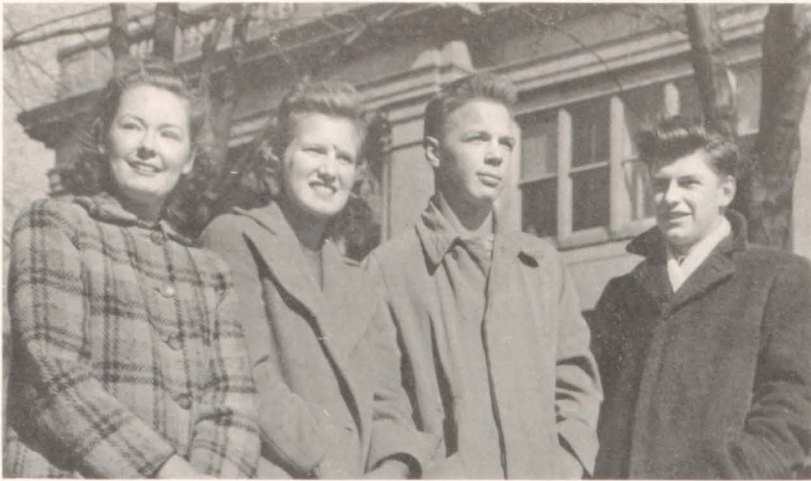

The following pages of this book are devoted to the Stars of our Circus, the members of the February graduating class. All of these retiring experts in scholastic achievement in High School were thrilled by some or all of the exciting events of the last few days. They were touched by the sentiment of their class play; they reminisced as they listened to the speakers at their senior-faculty banquet; and all contemplated their future as they sat at commencement, listening to the names of their classmates read aloud.

Pink lemonade or Orange Pekoe, the Senior girls all turn out for tea. Miss Campbell and Miss Berger pour for the annual College Club tea in the library. Darlene Mickelson, Norma Lencioni, Cecelia Regner, and Mary Lou Campbell wait for their tea.

The "Graveyard" is what circus people call the high seats at each end of the Big Top. . . Well, these graduates may be in the Kenosha gym's "graveyard" in this photograph, but they certainly didn't have a "dead" time that night!

Their fellow students like them, and you can see why. They're not only attractive but all are outstanding as student leaders. We are proud to present the officers of the January graduating class, Vera Jean Sydney, treasurer; Gunhild Backlund, secretary; Bob Engle, president; and Alfred Klees, vice-president.

STARRING . . FEBRUARY SENIORS

Robert Kivi and Richard Kiedrowski look on as Leona Jacoby receives her diploma from Mr. Loomis, superintendent of schools. Mr. Loomis follows the tradition of presenting each senior personally with his diploma. His hearty handshake signifies what all of the assembled people feel in their hearts—that each youth will lead a happy and successful life. . . Banquet—The banquet of the mid-year class may be remembered for a long time as the last senior-faculty gathering of its kind until after the war. At the first table are Marianne Funk, Betty Merritt, Sheila Knowles, Netta Courtney, Gunhild Backlund, Sophie Ulicki, Kathryn Valentine, and Marilyn Berenson.

Master of the Ring, John D. Davies, instructs the cast of Mrs. Miniver. This is a modern play, about the attempted invasion of England. The story is a tragic one, of people bound together through great trials.

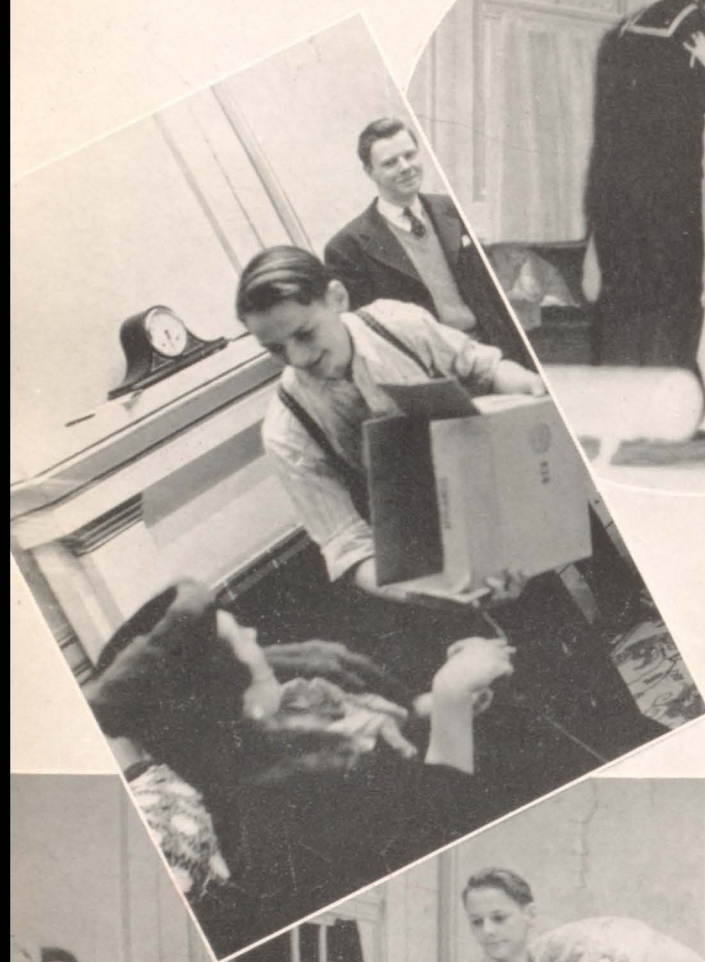

Ummm! In this scene we see Helen, a charming, level-headed young lady, played by Vera Jean Sydney, greeting Vin, the sailor, played by Al Klees. Vin has just returned from Dunkirk, safe and sound.

FANTASY

The Fantasy Act of our Circus was ring-master John D. Davies' spectacular, extraordinary, and breath-taking production of Mrs. Miniver. It was a difficult show to stage, but the performers and designers all came through to make it one of the most successful plays of all Senior class plays. Jane Threinen, actress de luxe, won top billing honors and played the part of Mrs. Miniver with poise and sincerity. Alan Anderson gave a fine performance as Mr. Miniver, while Al Klees, Mary Miller, Josie Ruffalo, Louise Richards, Jim Rydberg, Vera Jean Sydney, Russell Wiersum, Martin Kalb, Netta Courtney, Marilyn Berenson, Nels Hansen, and Ida Lee Chiapetta all had important roles. Some of the outstanding scenes from the fantasy are presented on this page.

Meet Mickey, the Mole! and Mme. Burfish, Marilyn Berenson, recoils as Tommy, Nels Hansen playing an underprivileged evacuee, pops Mickey into her face. This is one of the very humorous points in the Fantasy.

Tommy, Nels Hansen, gives out with a feather blitz. Toby, the mischievous lad, played by Russell Wiersum is the unfortunate recipient. Ida Lee Chiapetta and Louise Richards, as Jenny and Liza, are amused onlookers.

ACTS

Action Shot of the Big Dance Number. The Spy photographer had a busy night Friday, November 13, taking pictures of all the glamorous couples. This picture shows Phyllis Nelson with Bob Schmitz and Cleo Pierangeli with Selvio Gelichi.

SPECTACLE

The big Spectacle of our Circus is the annual Homecoming. It is the custom for a queen, chosen by the whole school, to preside over all the Homecoming festivities. Ben Trewyn, head of the S. C. A., conducted the voting, and Vera Jean Sydney won top honors to become our 1942 Homecoming Queen, with Jane Wiersum and Arline Tucholl as her attendants. She was crowned Queen in the gymnasium by Bob Engle, Senior A Class President, and later led the big Homecoming Parade and presided over the Central-Kenosha football tray. The two Bobs, Parenti and Schneider, aided by Mr. John, did a very good job planning and presenting the Spectacle of the year.

Sidney Bedore and Reynalda Carrena of the Spanish Club let Uncle Sam know that Kenosha is in the scrap; they have three dictators, Franklin Gail, Carl Williams, and Jim Arneson, at bay.

SIDE SHOWS

Come one! . . . Come all! . . . Visit our Great White Way—the Midway of our Circus—where clubs and activities offer attractions to suit every taste. . . Here Sub Debs display their beauty, Scientists and Quiz Kids their knowledge, Hi Y's and Red Triangles their manly virtues, Scouts and Girl Reserves their spirit of service. Here you meet musicians, writers, and linguists; your ticket admits you to every show and gives you a reserved seat at the great Carnival of the Circus, the gigantic Home Coming with its queens, its floats, its victorious athletes.

In their boyish costumes these Sub Deb girls who have just been initiated make a pretty picture, don't you think? Jean Dittmann, Vera Jean Sydney, Olivia Seymour, Jean Kotz and Jane Wiersum.

OUR CIRCUS BILLBOARDS KENEWS

Each circus has its publicity and billboard department; the Kenews gives us all the information about our Big Top, its stars, and its cast. The Kenews, one of the best school papers in the country, is published every two weeks, complete with front page flashes, editorials, social page, sports, and even a gossip column. Miss Wicks is the advisor, and Shirlee Lake is the editor.

HONOR SOCIETY, QUILL AND SCROLL, WRITERS' GUILD

In the National Honor Society are the night folks—the wise old owls—who are advised by Miss Brown and Miss Hansen. Students with high scholastic averages are eligible to join this club. . . Yes, we do have expert journalists in our school. Eligible members of the Kenews editorial staff are invited to join the Writers Guild, under the direction of Miss Wicks. Each year this club helps sponsor a literary contest, intended to promote interest in writing of all kinds. . . National recognition comes to top flight journalists when they join the Quill and Scroll. It's a tough grade, but worth the effort. Representatives are sent to state press conferences annually to learn the latest publishing methods and techniques. Miss Wicks advises this group.

SUB DEBS, JUNIOR ROTARY, ORDER OF THE ARROW

Grace and charm are added to our Circus by the glamorous Sub Debs, whose white sweaters are livened with the bright green emblem of their club. Miss Densmore chaperons all their meetings and all their parties . . . The most outstanding boys in school life are voted into the Junior Rotary, advised by Mr. Tremper, on the basis of scholastic and character ratings. The purpose of this club is to acquaint its members with the various business men of the city . . . Mr. Whitaker's year old school organization, Order of the Arrow, is a branch of the Boy Scouts, specializing in service and in promoting safety regulations within the halls and rooms of the high school.

Circus Designers for our annual this year were Bob Engle, left; Miss Dorothy Slater, seated; and Jack Bentz, right. . . They planned the book early in the year—and after struggling thru eight long months, have finally come out with the 1943 Circus Spy.

WE RUN THE

The 1943 Circus Spy! . . . A program of the Bradford High Big Top and its troupe; and if you have ever ventured into the noisiest room in school, 107, any 6th period, you have seen this program being made up. . . Really, it's rather hard work, especially with the difficulty in obtaining materials this year; but we have done our best and have tried to give you a complete program of the school year. . . Miss Slater is the advisor of the Spy. . . Editors are Bob Engle and Jack Bentz. . . Section editors and heads of various departments are:

Art and Layout — Bob Engle. . . Photography — Jack Bentz. . .

PRINTERS' GUILD, SPANISH, FRENCH

Start the presses! And out roll programs, tickets, notices, signs, announcements, and tags of all kinds in unbelievable quantities, all printed by the Franklin Printers with swiftness and dispatch. These experts, directed by Mr. Smith, do all the school printing . . . Swirling skirts, clicking castenets, tall sombreros—all proclaim our dusky neighbors to the South, the Latin Americans, whose colorful customs and languages are studied in our classes and mimicked in our Spanish Club, advised by Miss Schuessler . . . Patee, gay Patee, the immortal lady that will live again. Students of French dream of her as they study the language spoken in her streets. She becomes almost a reality in the club advised by Miss Wilson, where they study her glorious past and dream about her glorious future.

SEMINAR, LATIN, GONDOLIERS

Chemistry students! The torturers! How they enjoy tormenting defenseless students with the noxious odors which they produce in their laboratory. And then to become more ingenious in scientific output, they join the Seminar advised by Miss Doherty. . . "Arma virumque cano"—yes, you recognized it—the ringing words of Virgil, whose stirring language is taught today in our school and studied further in the Latin Club advised by Miss Clapp. . . Flashing teeth, snapping eyes, dark hair! Ah—the Italians! with light hearted ways and soft, caressing language. And where do the students of our great three ringer increase their knowledge of Italian? Why in the Gondoliers, of course, the Italian club advised by Mr. Magaro.

S. C. A. STUDENT COUNCIL, STUDENT ADVISORS

The Student Co-operative Association provides student tickets at greatly reduced expense to all members. The board is composed of one representative from each home room in the school. The tickets are given for basketball and football games, class plays, Kenews, forensics, and a swing band concert. Membership in the organization costs $2.75 in one payment, or a total of $3.00 in weekly payments of 15c each. . . Bewildered sophomores are guided through their first year by the members of the Student Advisory Board. Their time is spent in answering questions, and in advising the sophomores in the home room to which they are assigned about the course of study, clubs, and other activities.

STUDENT SENATE, ANNEX STUDENT COUNCIL, STUDENT CONGRESS

Are the student governing bodies of our school. Each group has separate activities, and each is working to improve school citizenship. . . The Student Senate is an advisory group composed of club and class presidents. The main activity of the organization is to suggest desirable changes in the school. . . The Student Council is one of the most active organizations in the school. They have charge of the service flag, regulating traffic on the stairs and in the halls, and keeping up the bulletin board. The Annex Student Council performs these same duties in the Annex. . . To secure actual experience in parliamentary procedure, the Student Congress passes bills, resolutions, and amendments.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB, MIXED CHORUS, A CAPPELLA CHOIR

Music with a smile! That's what the students of our three-ringer get from the young, music-loving troupers of our musical organizations: the Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs, the Mixed Chorus, the A Cappella Choir, and the Male Quartet. . . Pinafore, the great Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, was presented this year by the A Cappella Choir. Strains from this colorful piece were hummed in our corridors for days after its enthusiastic reception in the high school auditorium by students and grown-ups alike. . . The Mixed Chorus that meets on Thursday is an organization preparatory for the A Cappella Choir. Although they make no public appearances the students still give their best. . . The Glee Club is similar to the Mixed Chorus, while the four best boys of all three organizations are picked to sing in the Male Quartet—a great honor indeed.

RED TRIANGLE, HI-Y, ESQUIRE

The dark blue sweater with the red and gold emblem is symbolic of the courage, loyalty, and spirit of self sacrifice of The Red Triangle. Though their pledge is solemn, these funsters advised by Mr. Paddock still provide plenty of clowning for our three ringer. . . Taking delight in specialized initiations is only a sideline; the main purpose of the Hi-Y is the promotion of high standards of Christian character among its members. Mr. Chapel acts as adviser for this outstanding group of boys. . . New business: Let's have a dance! The Esquire club enjoys several social functions during the year, but its main purpose is that of service to the school. The adviser is Mr. Hartzell and the meetings are held at the homes of the members.

SOPHOMORE, JUNIOR, SENIOR GIRL RESERVE

Here are the Girl Reserves—over a hundred of them—all working together in service to our high school, the community, and the nation. Among the girls who offer their time and skill rolling surgical dressings at the Red Cross, many are Girl Reserves. At Christmas time, a party was given for some of Kenosha's little children. Throughout the year their efforts have gone into such activities as the "Donut Drag" with a contest for a Donut King and Queen; the senior Style Show, a modern up-to-date event full of novelty; a hard times get-together with the football and basketball teams; discussions with members of the Hi-Y and Red Triangle as guest speakers; and an impressive farewell ceremony for the seniors.

USHERS, KENEWS, STAMP SALESMEN

A seat! A front seat! Call the ushers. Their duty is to seat the audience at all performances in the auditorium, both school and civic affairs. They receive a small salary for their work and are supervised by Mr. Tremper. . . The war stamp salesmen are the backbone of the Victory effort in which every student participates. A salesman in each home room tries to make it possible to have the 100% sign on the door every week. They do not always succeed, but the sales for the year total about $25,000 in the main building. The Annex salesmen, not pictured, have done an outstanding job in getting the cooperation of the sophomores, for it has been possible for them to display the 90% Minute Man Flag over their building almost every week since February 15. Their total sales are about $10,500. . . A second look at the Kenews, as the whole editorial staff gets together for the grand finale.

STATE WINNERS

NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE

The 1943 season turned out to be another banner year for Kenosha, despite the fact that only two out of our ten state forensic competitors were veterans of former campaigns. This year the battling forensic team captured three out of five possible firsts in the N.F.L. state meet. Kenosha missed capturing, by a few scant points, the coveted sweepstakes award for team excellence, thus trading the state championship for second place. Kenosha won three firsts, one by Fred Congdon, who took the dramatic declamation title. Only two of his judges rated him less than first. Score one for Kenosha. Our second champion was Tony Russo. Tony, who has never before competed in an N.F.L. meet, sailed past all opposition to take the oratorical declamations crown. Score two for Kenosha. Lastly a Sophomore B, Raymond Johnson, outclassed many experienced veterans to take the original oratory division. Score three for Kenosha.

The running mates of the three champions also distinguished themselves in true Kenosha style. Harry Amadio fought his way through the finals in oratorical declamation before being eliminated. Jack D'Arcy proved himself a major contender for next year's original oratory crown. Frances Buratti showed that Kenosha can produce two excellent competitors in the dramatic declamation field in one year. Bob Parenti, a quick-thinking fellow, and Jean Hammond, a logical and hardened veteran of former campaigns, bid for fame in the difficult field of extemporaneous speaking. Corrine Mitchell and Ellen Trafford were stopped by experienced veterans in humorous declamation.

All told, this year's team, directed by skilled John Davies, who always turns out an excellent team, and spurred on to victory by Congdon, Russo, and Johnson, was an aggregation which will be remembered for many years as a great team.

STRONG

Richard "Doc" Friedeck, Kenosha's standout guard and Captain elect for 1943.

Champions and runners-up in the two major sports. That is Kenosha's proud record in this year's new era in local athletics. Our football team, under Coach Neal Heis, lost only one game in eight, annexed the Big Eight crown, and turned up with the biggest, toughest, and best Red Devil eleven in many years; while the basketball team, tutored by Coach Ben Trewyn, won its first six games of the year and finished second only to Racine Park, a masterly feat considering that Park won the State Championship, hands down. Kenosha was one of the three teams to beat Park this year. Thus Kenosha had a most successful season both in football and in basketball, copping first and second place respectively.

K. H. S. LOOKS UP TO FOOTBALL

Athletic Nite for K. H. S., and all Red Devil sportsdom was arrayed in the American Legion banquet hall. . . Awards were given to Joe Szelonski in recognition of his track achievements, to Wally Walker for swimming, to Pete Stipanuk for basketball, to Bill Eastman for football, and to John Inele for his outstanding all round athletic participation. . . This was the second annual Athletic Nite. Les Salerno also received the Legion football championship plaque.

Harry Stuldreher, famed Wisconsin coach, came to Kenosha and presented letters to the boys of the championship Football Team, twenty-four in all, one of the largest groups ever to receive letters. . . In addition to their "K's" each boy was awarded a miniature gold football, the funds for which were raised by the Student Senate under the chairmanship of Renee Cardell.

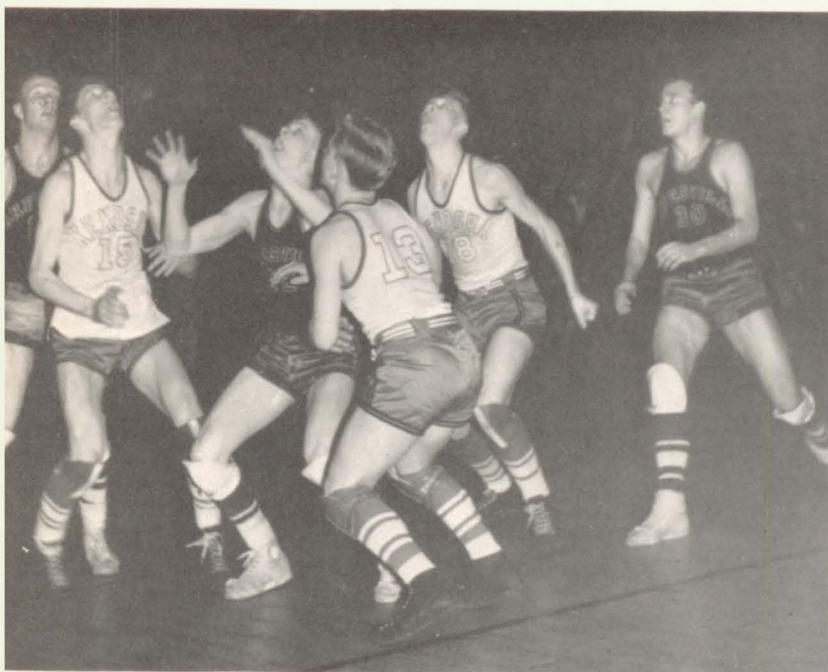

MEN

In swimming, Coach Peel with probably the youngest team in the state, managed to gain seventh place in the tough State Meet. He has the makings of a championship squad for the next two years. Track results cannot be given, as our book goes to press before the meets are held, but expectations for a successful season ought to be fulfilled. In football the Kenoshans landed five men, Harold Swanson, Oral Congdon, Bill Eastman, Capt. Les Salerno, and Chuck Knoedler on the Madison scribes' All Star Squad; and if a basketball All Star Team had been chosen, Pete Stipanuk and Eddie Keating would surely have won the nod. Coach Peel's proteges, swimming captain Wally Walker and trackman Joe Szelonski, are the cream of the state crop, Szelonski hoping to jaunt a 4:33 mile this season. From the standpoint of the coaches and the players, the athletic season of 1942-43 was definitely a success.

BASKETBALL, SWIMMING, AND TRACK

Watch It! . . . Everybody seems to have his mouth open in this picture of the Kenosha-Janesville game. . . . The Kenosha boys are Red Reynolds (15), Stanley Gorecki (13), and Pete Stipanuk (18). . . . Note the slightly crouched position of each player, as he prepares to leap for the ball. . . . Our team easily won this game by a score of 34 to 25.

Captain Wally Walker, Ranny Burr, and Dick Hughes watch a teammate, Bob Schwalbe, prepare to hit the water in quest of another aquameet victory for Kenosha. . . . Kenosha did win this meet over Waukegan by a score of 47-32. . . . This picture is of the 200 yd. relays, which the Kenosha watermen won in a very close finish.

At Long Last! . . . The Kenosha Gridmen are Champs! Coach Heis came through the 1942 season with the most powerful, skillful, and resourceful team in the conference. True, the Redmen pulled a terrific flop at Beloit, to permit the Bluebirds of Janesville to slip in and share the laurels with them. When you consider, however, that our Devils thoroughly outclassed Janesville, the Big Eight Co-Champs of 1942, 25-0, on October 30, they may be hailed as the 1942 Champs. It is with great pride, therefore, that we present the record of their games on the following three pages of this book.

MEET THE . . .

Our Four Genial Coaches: from left to right, Ben Trewyn, sophomore coach, Neil Heis, head coach, L. E. Engle, assistant coach; and Waldon Owens, junior coach. . . The two coaches of the varsity team divided the work, Mr. Heis handling the line, and Mr. Engle working with the backfield men. . . This method of training the boys certainly proved effective.

Eddie Radykowski, sprinting halfback, tears forty yards through the defense of the Marshall High team. . . These Chicago boys were Kenosha's last opponents of the 1942 Campaign, in a non-conference game. . . The Salerno-Calveresi combination clicked perfectly in this game, and, with other touchdowns by John Inele and Bob Dart, Kenosha won 27-0.

September 18 Kenosha, 6—Madison West, 6—There Kenosha launched the 1942 campaign against a strong team, Madison West. . . Ranked as the underdogs in this game, the team held the strong Madison eleven to a 6 to 6 tie. . . Early in the game an aerial assault took the Reds deep into Madison territory. . . Captain Les Salerno passed to Honk Calveresi on the one yard line. . . After several attempts to plunge over for the score, Bob Engle's short pass to Salerno was completed for the only Kenosha score. . . The West boys were no slackers, for they drove back down the field to score a touchdown with their fullback, Jim Fontana, as their mainstay. . . The second half was uneventful, as the teams clashed in a drenching rain. . . Madison threatened a few times, but long punts by Knoedler and Calveresi kept them from further advances. . . From the type of football displayed by the Reds in this game, there was no doubt that Kenosha was a team to bear watching.

September 25 Kenosha, 0—Racine Horlick, 0—Here Old man weather failed to cooperate when Racine Horlick battled Kenosha at the Lake Front Stadium. . . Rain was responsible for many incomplete passes and fumbles. . . Stand-outs in the offensive play for Kenosha were Les Salerno, Chuck Knoedler, and Bob Dart; while Harold Swanson, Bill Eastman, and Hank Wojciehowicz were defensive bulwarks. . . This was the second conference tie for the Red Devils.

October 2 Kenosha, 6—Madison East, 0—Here In their second home game of the season the Reds cashed in on a brilliant win. . . The visitors had control of the ball for most of the first half, but, just before the end of the half the aerial guns of Kenosha started to boom, only to be stopped by lack of time. . . At the start of the second half Kenosha threatened once, but was pushed back by a Madison punt. . . Since ground tactics were not bringing results, Knoedler threw a pass to Salerno on the 40 yard line, and Salerno scampered the remaining distance to a touchdown. . . Bob Milkent ran interference and blocked the East safety man out of the play. . . Bob Romanshek, Don Thomey, and Harold Swanson broke up many East plays during this game. . . This was the first victory for the gridmen of Kenosha on their home field in two years.

October 9 Kenosha, 13—Madison Central, 12—Here The 1942 homecoming was the greatest that the high school has ever staged, and the game was a thrilling climax. . . A one point lead won it for us. . . The Reds took advantage of a fumble by Madison near their own goal line, and Ken Orgish plunged over for the first score. . . Oral Congdon's kick after this touchdown was the deciding factor of the game. . . Madison went out ahead with two beautiful touchdown passes to lead at the end of the first half by a score of 12-7. . . Kenosha played real ball in the second half. . .

MADISON, PARK, JANESVILLE

A thrilling 40 yard run by Eddie Radykowski brought the ball to the 3 yard line, after which a short pass from John Inele to Don Thomey was good for 6 more points, giving Kenosha the lead. . . Bob Engle, Harold Swanson, and Bill Eastman exhibited notable defensive play as they helped check the ominous threats that Central made near the final gun. . . After the game, veteran fans were heard remarking that this certainly looked like the team of '34 when the Kenosha boys were undisputed champions of the Big Eight.

October 16 Kenosha 12—Park 0—There The homecoming events of Racine Park were blown sky high when Kenosha blanked them in an important game in the Big Eight race. In the opening stages Captain Salerno threw a pass to Calveresi, who ran for a touchdown. . . Park threatened, but a few fumbles and the wonderful defensive play of Kenosha stopped them from scoring. . . Kenosha had a golden opportunity to score when Harold Swanson intercepted a pass and ran to the 2 yard line from where John Inele took the ball over making the final score of 12-0.

October 30 Kenosha 25—Janesville 0—Here The Janesville game was preceded by a massive pep meeting which definitely encouraged the football squad. . . Janesville was outplayed in all phases of the game; our ground and aerial tactics combined made them practically helpless. . . All the scoring came in the second half. . . Kenosha's consistent threat finally made the Janesville line yield as Gene Covelli, on a reverse, crossed the goal for the first score. . . The first touchdown was just a preview of what was to come. . . The Salerno and Calveresi combination clicked again and again as Calveresi snared passes to score easily. . . Then Sam Modory intercepted a pass and went over untouched. . . In the closing stages of the game, Bob Dart, who played a snappy game at all times, broke through for a beautiful 40 yard run. . . This game put Kenosha at the top of the league, with only Beloit to face.

November 4 Kenosha 0—Beloit 6—There The Beloit game in which Beloit handed Kenosha its fifth defeat in five years of competition was a great disappointment. . . This was the only defeat the team suffered during the season. . . Playing definitely off form, Kenosha was on the defensive most of the time. . . The Reds threatened once, but an interception blew all hopes of the game. . . The outcome of this game gave us a tie for the Big Eight Championship.

Kenosha 27—Marshall 0

For their last contest of the '42 season the Reds played the big Chicago Marshall team on Armistice Day. Determined to make up for their poor showing against Beloit the week before, the Devils battered their big city opponents into submission early in the game and then scored easily in the last three periods to win the game in a breeze. The first quarter was a punting duel between Kenosha's brilliant Chuck Knoedler and Marshall's Monroe, but in the latter part of the half left end Calvaresi took Salerno's long pass on Chicago's 15 yard line, completely out-foxed two Marshall men with some fancy maneuvering, and galloped over the goal line untouched. Radykowski later broke away on a 40 yard jaunt to the 4 yard line, and Johnny Inele over on the next play. Bob Dart, who kicked the three points after the touchdowns, slipped through the line for the third score, and Calvaresi caught another touchdown pass for the final tally. Dart sparkplugged the team with his skillful and fiery performance, while Bill Biolo and Ray Smolek, second-stringers, sparkled with their hard play. This was the Red's final game, and probably their best showing of the year.

After weeks of drilling and studying the fundamentals of football, Coach Trewyn's fighting sophomores were all set for the first game. . . Racine Park was the first opponent and was beaten. . . The final score was Kenosha 6, Racine Park 0.

Racine Horlick proved a lot tougher opponent than Park, and the "B" team suffered their first defeat. . . It was a hard won contest for the Horlick lads, as Kenosha threatened many a time and went down as far as the four yard marker. . . Horlick emerged victorious by a score of 6 to 0. . . To the disappointment of the team, Cudahy yielded a win to Kenosha on a forfeit.

Running up the highest score of the season, the "B" team victimized West Milwaukee by a score of 19-0. . . The opponents were helpless on offense, as the Pink Devils smeared their runners many a time. . . A slight edge in weight and height helped South Milwaukee put the dampers on the Sophs' successful winning streak. . . Even though the boys did lose, they went down fighting. . . The final score was Kenosha 6; South Milwaukee 13. . .

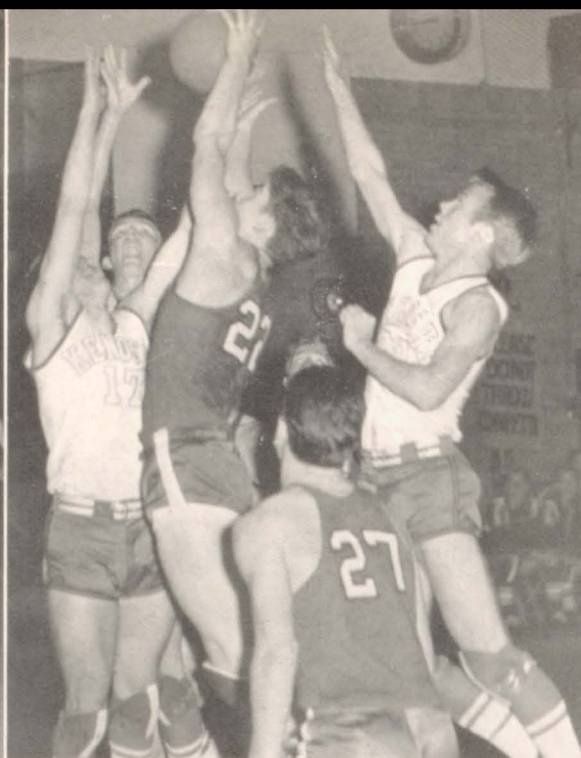

Once more Park fell by the wayside as the Pink Devils passed and ran the Parkers ragged. . . When the gun went off, Kenosha led 13 to 0.

Coming through! . . . The top shot shows Gene Covelli crossing the goal line for the first touchdown of the Janesville game. . . In the middle picture we see Don Thomey surrounded by a mob of Madison Central men as he spins with a pass from John Inele and scores for a touchdown. . . The bottom pic shows Central's Ted Esser as he makes a nice gain against Kenosha. . . He was almost in the open, but Sam Modory (38), and Bill Eas'man (25), flattened him.

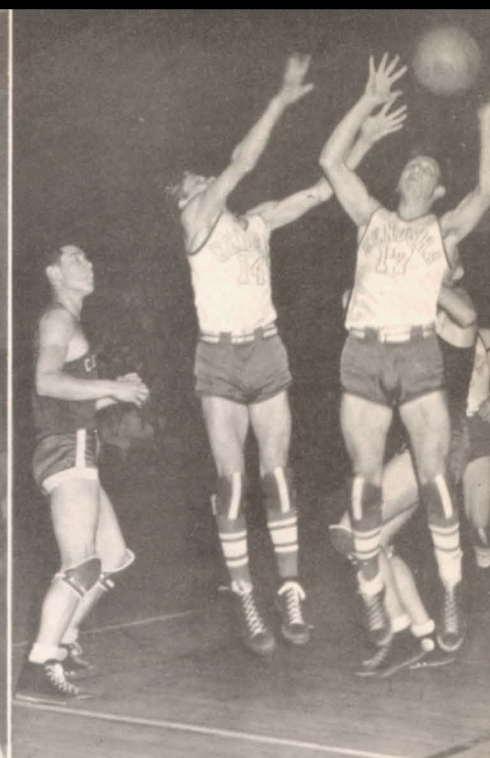

C'mon Down! . . John Inele and Red Reynolds wait for the sphere to drop within reach. . . Inele, rugged center, was one of the Red's top scorers, while Reynolds was also a sharp-shooting first-stringer.

Bob Wilson, Red Devil speedster, reaches high for the ball in a melee of red and white jerseyed players. . . Auburn-thatched Bob is a senior whose speed and splendid pass work earned him a starting berth on Kenosha's squad.

Kenosha's aerial artists scramble for a rebound. . . No 17 under the bucket is Inele, No. 14 is Ed Keating. . . This is a photo of the Sheboygan-Keno game in which the Redmen trounced last year's Fox River Valley Champs.

AERIAL ARTISTS

Kenosha High School once more showed its power in athletics as the basketball team finished second in the Big Eight race. . . Their record for the past season included twelve wins and six defeats, but three of those defeats were by a slim margin of two points.

The "Reds" started off hotter than a blast furnace and ran up six consecutive victories in the early part of the season. . . Another streak of five wins was started toward the end of the season, but Racine Park snapped the string in the sectional tournament. . . Kenosha was one of the three schools in the state to hand a defeat to Racine Park, the winner of the State and Big Eight crowns.

As the season ended for our basketball team, there was silence in the dressing room, instead of the usual chatter about someone's spectacular play or shot. . . The players seemed to be in deep thought, each perhaps recalling some incident where his play or basket helped win a game for Kenosha High. . . They hated to leave everything to which they had been accustomed. . . Mr. Trewyn's pat on the back or some few words of praise seemed to make them raise their heads and say "We did our best." . . And as they folded and put their suits away, deep down in their hearts they wished good luck to the members of the team who will wear those suits next year. . . This and many other touching scenes are never seen by the student body nor by the faculty but are in the memory of every athlete.

November 20 Kenosha, 22—Rufus King 16—There The Red cagers engaged Rufus King as their first opponent for the 1942-43 season. . . Coach Ben Trewyn alternated two combinations. . . Bill Rohns was the star of the night as he hit the nets with three long shots to garner scoring honors.

November 21 Kenosha, 22—Racine Park, 20—There Team spirit helped the Reds overcome an early lead to win the game against Racine Park. . . The team Wilson, Sebetic, Inele, Stipanuk, and Zongolowicz brought grief to the Park cagers. . . Wilson and Stipanuk dropped in a total of 12 points.

November 25 Kenosha, 34—Sheboygan, 27—Here Beautiful shooting by Keating and Inele iced the game for the Reds' third straight victory. . . Although their opponents had a definite height advantage, the Red Devils controlled most of the rebounds, and Sheboygan, last year's Fox Valley Champions, did not threaten during the entire contest.

November 28 Kenosha, 30—South Milwaukee, 24—Here The Kenosha basketeers victimized South Milwaukee in the last nonconference game of the season. . . The Rockets could not match the Reds' high caliber play. . . Inele made 7 points and was followed closely by Zongolowicz and Wilson. . . Excellent team play was evident, the Milwaukee boys being baffled many times by Kenosha's smooth ball handling.

VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM:

December 4 Kenosha, 26—Madison West 25—Here
A last-second basket by Pete Stipanuk in an overtime period gave the Reds the margin of victory against Madison West. . . Scoring honors went to Keating, Inele, and Stipanuk, but Cuccia of West was the outstanding player on the floor. . . This was the opening game of the Big Eight Conference.

December 10 Kenosha, 36—Janesville, 32—There
Kenosha emerged as victor in a hard fought game with Janesville. . . Game-captain Pete Stipanuk led the scoring attack with a total of twelve points. . . Keating and Johnson made some nifty shots in the closing stages to insure the victory. . . The win moved the Kenoshans into the top spot in conference standing.

December 18 Kenosha, 22—Racine Horlick 24—Here
Two quick baskets by Anderson and Benriscutto won the game for Horlick in the first reversal suffered by Coach Trewyn's team. . . Weak passing by the Reds was the cause of defeat. . . John Inele was the best defensive man on the floor for Kenosha; Jack Johnson led the scoring column with six points.

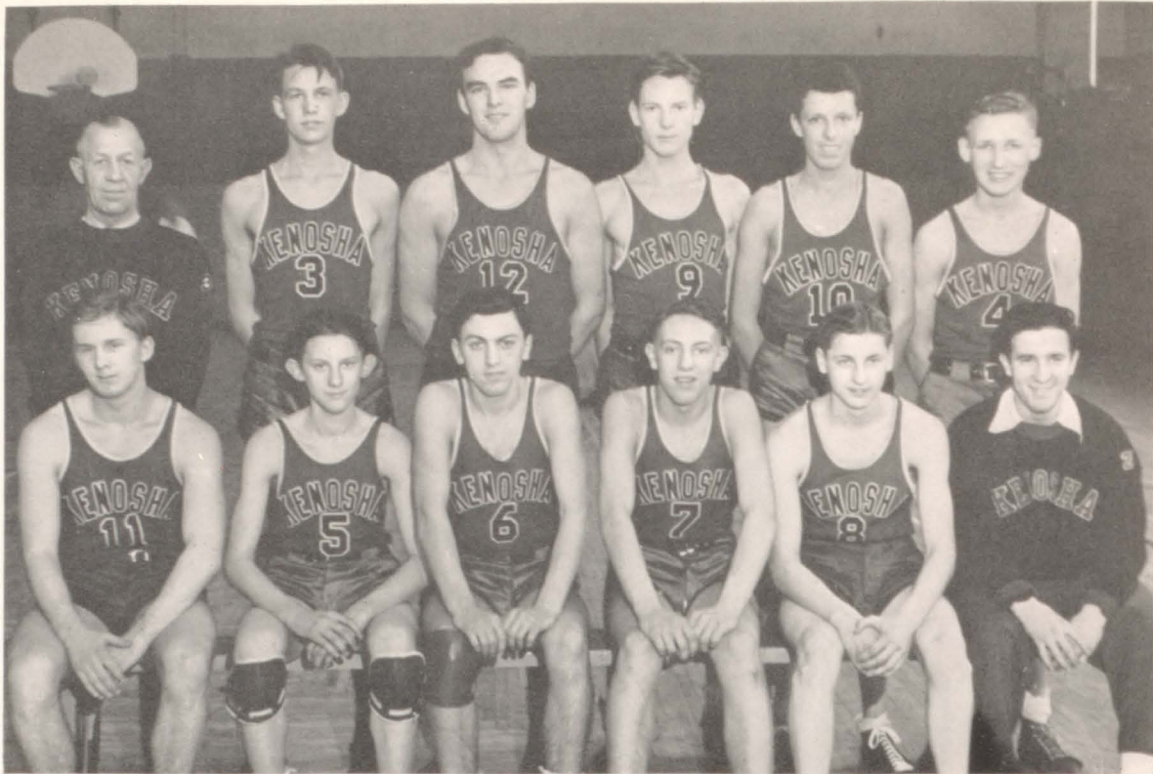

December 29 Kenosha, 21—Racine Park, 24—Here
The Reds dropped a non-conference game to their old rivals, Park, over the Christmas holidays. . . Only two out of twelve free flips were made by the Reds, which was the main factor in their defeat. . . Eddie Keating, scoring one-half of Kenosha's points, dropped in five buckets from the field and made one free throw.

January 8 Kenosha, 16—Madison Central, 37—There
Central's "cracker box" gym proved a great handicap to the Kenosha boys, accustomed to a more spacious court. . . Central had little trouble upsetting the Kenoshans and had control of the ball most of the time. . . The Reds' long shots constantly hit the low ceiling. . . Ed Keating was sick and failed to see action.

January 15 Kenosha, 30—Madison East, 22—Here
The tallest team in the Big Eight Conference could not stop the Red Devils from annexing an important conference game. Amil Sebetic, acting captain for this game, stole the show with his southpaw push shots. . . Stan Gorecki, pint-sized guard, sparked the Reds defensively and also scored six points.

January 22 Kenosha, 18—Beloit 21—There
The Reds wrote "Finis" to the first half of the season by losing a dull game to Beloit. . . Beloit's early lead was too great to overcome, although John Inele's hook shots added ten points in the last half. . . Failure to sink free tosses and eleven points by Beloit's Bob Means contributed to the Reds' fourth defeat.

January 29 Kenosha, 17—Madison West, 24—There
The out of town jinx once more in effect, Kenosha lost to Madison West in a sluggish game. . . Kenosha played a poor offensive game in the second half, and their defense was completely broken by Cuccia's long shots in the last quarter. . . In this game Coach Trewyn abandoned the two team system.

BASKETBALL "B" TEAM

BASKETBALL "B" TEAM

Our "B" team cagers have had a successful season under the guidance of Coach L. E. Engle. . . Out of 22 games played the Pink Devils won 18 and lost only four, an excellent record. The total number of points compiled by the team indicated their skill in offensive play as they averaged 30 points per game, while their opponents averaged 24.6 points a game. . .

Next year many of the boys will play with the varsity. . . Some who are considered good prospects by Coach Trewyn are Zvoda, Young, Bosman, Congdon, Mayer, Remstead, Langerman, and Bundy. . . Much of the burden of next year's varsity competition will be placed on their shoulders, as only one regular is returning.

February 5 Kenosha, 42—Janesville, 27—Here Clever strategy against Janesville's zone defense won a decisive victory for the Reds. . . At no time during the game was Kenosha critically threatened. . . The one handed push shots of Stan Gorecki and Eddie Keating were the highlights of the game, as each was responsible for 10 points.

February 20 Kenosha, 43—Beloit, 28—Here Once more the Reds avenged a previous defeat, as the Kenosha basketeers took the lead with an overwhelming score and kept it through the entire game. . . Pete Stipanuk collected 15 points; Eddie Keating and John Inele made 8 apiece. . . This was the conference record score for the season.

February 6 Kenosha, 42—Madison Central 27—Here In this second encounter with Madison Central, Kenosha got revenge for the earlier defeat and soundly trounced Central in a game that saw the Reds hotter than a welder's flame. . . Pete Stipanuk went on a scoring rampage and splashed in 18 points. . . Kenosha definitely started to come back to their pre-season showing.

February 26 Kenosha, 40—Madison East, 35—There This was the second defeat that Madison East suffered at the hands of Kenosha. . . John Inele, Pete Stipanuk, and Bob Wilson led the scoring attack with 11, 12, and 8 points respectively. . . This win clinched second with the Reds in the conference race, with Racine Park the leader.

February 12 Kenosha, 22—Horlick, 24—There Horlick was the only team to hand Kenosha a double defeat with identical scores. . . The second game was a good ball game all the way through and would have been a hard one for either team to lose. . . Keating and Stipanuk shared scoring honors with 6 points apiece. . . Many Kenosha rooters were at this game.

March 3 Kenosha, 18—Racine Park, 20—There In the first game of the regional tournament Kenosha, a favorite for the state title, suffered a tough setback. . . Park won the state championship with little competition from their later opponents. . . This was the final game for this year's team, for, with the exception of Stan Gorecki, all will graduate in June.

Golf provides excellent exercise, and each year attracts many boys to participate in the inter-school matches. . . Mr. Stocker is golf coach, while "Casey" Adamowicz, Paul Richards, Bob Hartnell, and Chet Wawioroko are aiming to be this year's stars. . . However, as matches are not conducted until after our book goes to press, we cannot give you the results.

In the second picture we see Rosie Rozumoff, the queen of the ten pins, about to let go with a sizzling hook. . . Marian Pedley and Nora Lee Poltrock are her loyal rooters. . . Lucy Antaramian is marking score on the alley to their left.

MISCELLANEOUS SPORTS

Mr. Peel, Mr. Heis, and Mr. Engle handle the gym classes, important part of our athletic program nowadays . . . Here are a group of puffing participants going over the west wall "a la Commando" as part of the Ranger program in effect since January 1.

Chet Wawioroka of the winning team of the boys' bowling league, stands poised for the twelfth strike, as teammates Chet Duczak and Dick Kiedrowski prepare to mark it up. . . Seated behind him are the two remaining members of the team, Joe Szelonski and Stanley Gardynecki, and spectator Earl Guttormsen. . . The envious onlookers standing behind them are Jim Yule, Bob Gilfillan, and Richard Zicarelli.

Every sixth hour on Monday the girls' bowling class meets at Schneeberger's. . . Here are Renee Cardell and Robbie Dennis adding up their scores, while Jenny Laban, Ruth Ranchel, Audrey Halberstadt, Lorraine Jankowski, Marie Ann Duffy, and June Zoerner relax before they get their 300.

TRACK TEAM

This past season our mermen won four meets and lost three. . . In the state meet the team got sixth place in a field of twenty-five schools, when Captain Wally Walker took fourth in the 50 yards free style event and the medley relay team tied for the fourth place. . . Shorewood proved too strong a contender for any of the schools entered, and won the meet easily. . . The 1943-44 squad will greatly miss Captain Walker, who swam in his specialties, the 50 and 100 yard free style, besides being anchor man in the 200 yard relay. . . Wally was the first high school athlete to receive the American Legion Award two years in a row for outstanding work on the swimming squad. . . Buddy Brandt, diver, will also be missed by the remaining tank men. . . Bud was always good for points in the diving events. . . These losses will be somewhat supplemented by two younger swimmers. . . Fellows that show great promise are Jack Tully and Paul Richards. . . Next year's team should wage a successful campaign, as seven men are returning to compete in their various events. . . The fellows coming back are Bob Schwalbe, Richard Hughes, Ted Donais, Paul Richards, Bob Smith, Jack Tully, and Don Preston.

HUMAN BULLETS • • •

The actual record of the 1943 track season can not be presented, since the SPY goes to press before track gets underway. A brief report will be given on the past season and prospects for this year. Last season, state wide acclaim was given to Kenosha's relay team and their miler, Joe Szelonski. The relay combination of Radykowski, Morelli, Davies, and Ferguson captured both the Big Eight and State championships. Joe Szelonski breezed to a Big Eight meet record and was beaten by six inches for the State crown, but this year he looms a heavy favorite to cop both crowns. Coach Jack Peel took only five men to the State meet, and this small squad managed to finish third in a field of one hundred and thirty-two high schools. Les Ferguson is the only major loss to the team. The rest of the squad is in great shape, and such standouts as Joe Szelonski in the mile and Eddie Radykowski in the dashes look like sure winners. Eddie has been chosen captain of the squad for '43. Other letter men returning for the '43 campaign are Ed Morelli, Marvin Davies. John and Bob Milkent, Wally Walker, and Martin Setter. The W.I.A.A. has recently reported that the state track meet may be postponed because of transportation difficulties. If, however, there is a State meet, the Red Fliers will be rated among the favorites for the championship.

APRIL 30, KENOSHA vs. RACINE PARK

It was indeed a surprise to the Park runners as the Kenosha cindermen handed them a defeat by a score of 64 to 49. The score would have been higher if Ed Radykowski, captain, had been able to run. Ed at the time was nursing a sore muscle, and was unable to compete.

The standout of the meet was Ed Morelli, who ran the opposing dashmen into the ground. This chap gained 11¼ points for the school, as he easily won the 100 and the 200 yard dashes, besides participating in the 880 yard relay.

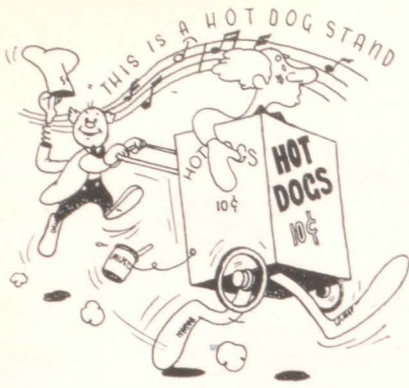

Joe Szelonski came through in grand fashion in his favorite run, the mile. Joe's time was not as fast as it usually is, since there was no competition. Much praise was given to Werner, who ran a close third in this same event.

Coach Engle, who is in charge of the field events, turned out some excellent performers. Amil Sebetic, who competed for the first time, won the broad jump. Tony Russo gained a third in the pole vault, while Bauman, also a sophomore, earned a second in the high jump. In the weight division, Arnold Bolton and Oral Congdon did their part to insure Kenosha's win.

Although Kenosha is usually weak in hurdles, the prospects this year look much brighter as Walker, Zongolowicz, Pauser and Mayer did some fancy jumping and collected a total of 10 points.

John Milkent, who is competing in his last year, took a second in the 440. Martin Setter and Bob Milkent also took a first and second respectively.

This gives you a view of the power of the 1943 Track Team, potential "Big Eight" champs.

THE CIRCUS DAY PARADE

Oh, the Circus-Day Parade! . . . How the bugles played and played!
 And how the glossy horses tossed their flossy manes and neighed,
 As the rattle and the rhyme of the tenor-drummer's time
 Filled all the hungry hearts of us with melody sublime!

How the grand band-wagon shone with a splendor all its own,
 And glittered with a glory that our dreams had never known!
 And how the boys behind, high and low of every kind,
 Marched in unconscious capture, with a rapture undefined!

How the horsemen, two and two, with their plumes of white and blue,
 And crimson, gold and purple, nodding by at me and you,
 Waved the banners that they bore, as the Knights in days of yore,
 Till our glad eyes gleamed and glistened like the spangles that they wore!

How the graceless-graceful stride of the elephant was eyed,
 And the capers of the little horse that cantered at his side!
 How the shambling camels, tame to the plaudits of their fame,
 With listless eyes came silent, masticating as they came.

And, last of all, The Clown, making mirth for all the town,
 With his lips curved ever upward and his eyebrows ever down,
 And his chief attention paid to the little mule that played
 A tattoo on the dashboard with his heels, in the Parade.

Oh! the Circus-Day Parade! . . . How the bugles played and played!
 And how the glossy horses tossed their flossy manes and neighed,
 As the rattle and the rhyme of the tenor-drummer's time
 Filled all the hungry hearts of us with melody sublime!
